Rules and Regulations of the Institute

Dr. D.Y. Patil Institute of Management Studies aims to develop holistic personality of the students. The students will observe strict discipline within the campus as well as outside the campus such as bus stations, railway stations, public places, playground, during picnics and industrial tours arranged by the Institute. Students are advised to ensure that consciously or unconsciously they do not bring disrepute to the institute or to the persons connected with the institute. Any act of the student not adhering to this shall be considered as an act of misconduct or indiscipline. DYPIMS students shall abide by the following code of discipline and will be liable for strict action.

1. Registration:

- At the beginning of every semester on the first day of the commencement of the course, every student is supposed to register and submit his application for readmission, within seven days of the start date of the semester.
- The semester start date is decided by SPPU and is notified to students well before time.

2. Attendance:

- Students should be regular and punctual in attending classes, practicals and submission of assignments and projects. If attendance is not found satisfactory, they may not be allowed to appear for the examinations (Internal/University). As per University statute, 75% attendance in theory and practicals is mandatory and failing to comply will result in debaring students from the subsequent semesters. The Institute follows the ordinance laid on attendance norms by SPPU. All leave applications shall be submitted to Director's office after being endorsed by Subject teacher, mentor, and academic coordinator, as per the students leave policy of the Institute. Students should be present in the class 5 minutes before the start of every lecture.
- Within 30 days of the commencement of each semester, the status of attendance for all subjects will be compiled and the parents of students having less than 75% attendance will be informed by the Director about the attendance deficiency. Next 30 days will be given to the students to make up the said deficiency.
- If the attendance deficiency is not rectified within 30 days of the semester, the parents of defaulter student shall have to meet the Director and sign an affidavit on stamp paper to give an assurance that the said attendance deficiency shall be filled up by the end of the semester. If this is not complied with, the student having the attendance shortfall shall not be permitted to appear for the internal as well as for university end semester examination.
- If the attendance deficiency is not rectified till the end of the semester, fine shall be levied and the student may be debarred from the Institute so as the case may be.
- The Institute maintains the right to hold extra classes on Sundays/Holidays and it would be mandatory for every student to attend, failing which suitable disciplinary /administrative action shall be taken.

3. Guidelines on attendance and performance related to Skill Development Program, Communicative English and Business English subjects:

- For the purpose of enhancing employability of the students, skill development program and Communicative English and Business English (CE & BE) classes are conducted; for imparting proficiency in spoken and written English. Attendance in these classes is mandatory.
- Those students not attending Skill Development Program, CE & BE will be levied with appropriate fine.
