Report on Induction Program and Parents Meet

Induction Program & Parents Meet was conducted at Dr D.Y. Patil Institute of Management Studies on Saturday, 25th August 2018. The Induction Program and Parents meet was organized with an objective of orienting the students to the MBA course & to provide a platform for the parents to interact with the management faculty and staff of the Institute.

Induction Program:

The Induction program commenced at 10.00 hrs at the seminar hall with the lighting of the lamp by the chief guest Dr. Jitendra Joshi, MD and Group Chairman- Abhi Group of Companies along with Guest of Honour, Dr J K Dattagupta, Former Executive Director- Hindustan Antibiotics Ltd , Wg Cdr PVC Patil (Retd) , Executive Director DYPIMS, Prof D R Karnure, Consultant Director DYPIMS, Dr J G Patil, Head Corporate Relations DYPIMS and Dr Ashutosh Misal , Director DYPIMS.

Mr Hitesh Patel, Mr Dhiraj rathi and Mr Sameer Tamboli (Along with the Chief Guest, Guest of Honour and Management)

Dr Ashutosh Misal, Director DYPIMS welcomed all the guests, parents and students. He introduced all the facilities, services provided by DYPIMS in order to groom future managers. He briefly introduced the placement cell, NSS, Entrepreneur Development Cell, mentoring system and how DYPIMS do things differently rather than doing different things.

Wg Cdr PVC Patil (Retd), Executive Director DYPIMS and Dr Ashutosh Misal, Director DYPIMS told that parents shall regularly contact DYPIMS to know the progress of their wards. He explained wisely how to create a mark in industry because there is no place for non-performer.

Various awards and prizes including Gold Medal award were bestowed during the Induction program. Mr Hitesh Patel batch 2016-18 was awarded with the GOLD Medal for his outstanding performance in academic as well as in extracurricular activities.

Dr Jitendra Joshi (MD and Group Chairman- Abhi Group of Companies) enlightened the students with the requirements of corporate world. He urged parents to stop comparing their child with others and support them in every right decision. He inspired students to become a job giver than job seeker. Dr Jitendra Joshi shared his childhood experiences and explained how he took failure as a challenge. Failure and confusion is first step towards confirmation. Every student must possess this kind of attitude and treat every failure as a challenge and opportunity. He also added students must possess curiosity to know the implementations of known theories. Participating in various activities, competitions build confidence and interpersonal skills. Only the one who dream big can achieve big.

Dr J K Dattagupta, Former Executive Director- Hindustan Antibiotics Ltd. He explained various concepts of domain knowledge, skill, attitude, accountability, corporate governance, IQ and EQ ratio, difference between knowledge and ability. Survival in industry depends 40% on domain knowledge, 30% skill sets and 30% attitude. Students need to focus on their overall development. This is a conceptual age where creativity and innovation is in demand. Only creative mind and innovative approach can make one successful management professional. He further added, knowledge makes you able and ability is product of knowledge and skill. In present scenario every management student should possess reflective thinking, imaginative/creative thinking, and adoptable approach.

Induction program was concluded with vote of thanks by Dr Priyanka Mishra, Assistant Professor, DYPIMS.

Parents Meet:

The second session was about formal interaction of Governing Body members with the parents. In this session, session started with the address of the director, Dr. Ashutosh Misal and followed by interaction with the Wg. Cdr. P. V. C. Patil (Rtd.). Then Dr.Sachin Vernekar addressed parents about the importance of time management and respect to their wards . He said in his speech that “don’t consider your child can’t do anything everyone is special in their own field so let them do whatever they want to do, just guide them and let them stand in society.”

Sachin Wernekar’s speech was followed by Lieutenant General D.B. Shekatkar. In his speech he addressed parents about the importance of education. And he said that no one is perfect in this world everyone should consider that he is being always student in his entire life. So don't hesitate to learn from anyone though he is less qualified or younger than you. You should gain knowledge from anywhere and any type of that, it can be useful anywhere. And at the end he told to parents that they shall tell their wards that "the enjoyment and dedication to the work can give them the highest place in the field in which they work."

Then the vote of thanks was proposed by Ms. Minal Waghchoure, Assistant Professor DYPIMS in that she addressed few points which are said by the above speakers and gave shining on the precious point said by the speaker.

After the lunch break the third session was started and it was led by Dr. Priyanka Mishra. It was the informal interaction of the teachers with the parents. In this session all teacher gave their introduction to the parents and then the questions were asked by the parents and answers were given by teachers of the institute. Parents showed satisfaction on the information received from faculty members and confirmed that their queries were resolved satisfactorily. Then feedbacks of the parents were collected.
