While addressing the audience Dr. Ashutosh Misal, Director, DYPIMS said that our Constitution has given guidelines to us to run this country smoothly. The Constitution has created a solid foundation for the country to run politically, socially and economically. He emphasized on the young generation to learn the roles and responsibilities and make the country more prosperous and peaceful to stay.

While addressing the audience Chief Guest of the function, Wg Cdr PVC Patil (Retd) said that we as a Nation should grow together then only principles of equality may come into reality. We should think about nation first but in reality, we are thinking self-first which is not going to work if we want to become an economic superpower. He focused on Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar's contribution in preparation of the constitution. This is a beacon or torchbearer for all of us to move on and run this country forever. He was the Chairman of the drafting committee and he only worked hard through day and night. We should remember his contribution and follow the principles laid down by the constitution.
